

A Saturday with My Friend

By Kathy Zhu

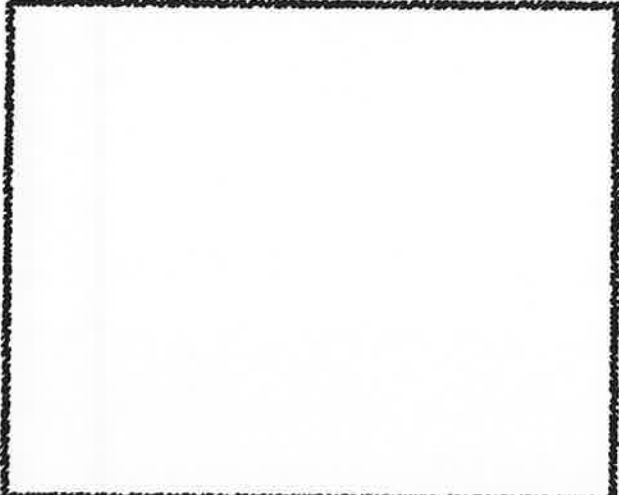

An Saturday With My Friend

Written and Illustrated by Kathy Today, my mom was working so when I finish dance class, I went to my friend Mijan's house.

I came first at the dance class, and my grandma saw I wear my coat up side down! When Mijan came, I telled her and she laughed. Mijan's mom telled me my mom will come to eat dinner at Mijan house. I was very happy that I can eat dinner at her house.

"Come in the classroom" the teacher said. "OK," we said. We started the dance class. In dance class, we learned cart wheels. Mijan could did it but couldn't did it correctly. I could did it but couldnt stand still and sometime I fell.

When we finished the dance class, we started to talk about what we would eat, what we would play, and what we would make.

When we were at her house, we washed our hand and talked about the game until Mijan's mom said 'time to eat lunch' we ran to the table ant started to ate. I thought the lunch is yummy!

Then we grabbed our Ipad and played 20 minute Eggy Party, 'we win 3 race!' Mijan said. We also make some paper craft. And we played hide and seek, I just be the runner 1 time because it is so scared.

Last, my mom came to eat dinner! We ate dinner, it was yummy too! When we finished dinner, we watch TV, it was so happy at her house.

We really don't want to be seperated, we want to sleep together!

About the Author

My name is Kathy. I am 8 years old,

I have born in June 12th 2016. I like purple and yellow, my favoret animal is cat.