PHONICS / SPELLING

Proofreading

There are six spelling mistakes in this TV broadcast. Circle the misspelled words. Write the words correctly on the lines below.

Hello, everyone! This is Wendy Mills reporting live from the space shuttle lift-off. And what a sight it is. The shuttle is ready to go. The crowd is spread out across a huge field. You can hear screams of excitement all around. NASA has set up three big screens that show what is going on inside the shuttle. The captain sits in a chair that is as big as a throne! Outside, workers are lifting lots of heavy equipment. Wow, they sure must be strong to carry all that weight. Any minute now they will throw the switch and the shuttle will take off. Stay tuned.
